The Cause: M1’s for Vets Project was started by John O’Shea of Huntersville, NC. November 2005 with a single rifle presented to a returning wounded Marine, a veteran of The War on Terror. Since then this program has given, as a small token of appreciation for their sacrifice, an example “of the greatest battle implement ever devised” to more than 250 of our countries finest! Donations and spare parts for M1’s will also be gladly accepted!
